

Another aunt. Christina Holzmann baptized in the year 1790. This is getting very interesting! I have figured out the language thing. It is Latin. The church records prior to the French Revolution were recorded in Latin.

The cover is a photo copy of the cover of the protestant church baptismal records for the years 1790-1791. Christina's baptism is recorded as no. 53 of 67 for the year 1790. Note the signature at the very bottom. Finally, we have a summation of the year's (1790) baptisms as written by Johann Philippus Wegelinus, Pastor of the church.

George and Madeleine (Schneider) Holzmann were a very busy couple!
